VOLUME CIX.--NO. 67. ALEXANDRIA, VA., WEDNESDAY EVENING, MARCH 18, 1908. PRICE 2 CENTS

If You Read This

It will be to learn that the leading medical writers and teachers of all the several schools of practice recommend, in the strongest terms possible, each and every ingredient entering into the composition of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery for the cure of weak stomach, dyspepsia, catarrh of stomach, "liver complaint," torpid liver, or biliousness, chronic bowel affections, and all catarrhal diseases of whatever region, name or nature. It is also a specific remedy for all such chronic or long standing cases of catarrhal affections and their resultants, as bronchial, throat and lung disease (except consumption) accompanied with severe coughs. It is not so good for acute colds and coughs, but for lingering, or chronic cases it is especially efficacious in producing perfect cures. It contains Black Cherrybark, Golden Seal root, Bloodroot, Stone root, Mandrake root and Queen's root—all of which are highly praised as remedies for all the above mentioned affections by such eminent medical writers and teachers as Prof. Bartholow, of Jefferson Med. College; Prof. Hare, of the Univ. of Pa.; Prof. Finley Ellingwood, M. D., of Bennett Med. College, Chicago; Prof. John King, M. D., of Cincinnati; Prof. John M. Scudder, M. D., of Cincinnati; Prof. Edwin M. Hale, M. D., of Hahnemann Med. College, Chicago, and scores of others equally eminent in their several schools of practice.

The "Golden Medical Discovery" is the only medicine put up for sale through druggists for like purposes that has any such professional endorsement—worth more than any number of ordinary testimonials. Open publicity of its formula is the best possible guaranty of its merits. A glance at this published formula will show that "Golden Medical Discovery" contains no poisonous, harmful or habit-forming drugs and no alcohol—chemically pure, triple-refined glycerine being used instead. Glycerine is entirely unobjectionable and besides is a most useful agent in the cure of all stomach as well as bronchial, throat and lung affections. There is the highest medical authority for its use in all such cases. The "Discovery" is a concentrated glyceric extract of native, medicinal roots and is safe and reliable.

A booklet of extracts from eminent medical authorities, endorsing its ingredients mailed free on request. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

TRAPS WIFE BY PHONE.

A jealous husband, an incautious wife and telephone conversation in Chicago yesterday.

This combination produced a chain of events which included the boxing of the ears of Mrs. Jesse Rosen, formerly of Meadville, Pa., by her husband, while, he insists, she was expecting to meet another man, on a crowded street in Hammond, and Rosen's immediate commitment to jail for six months.

Rosen recently became imbued with the idea that Mrs. Rosen's love for him was being diverted to another. After much thought he devised a plan to confirm his suspicions. He would call her on the telephone, represent himself as his rival and await developments. He carried out the plan.

"Is that you, dearie?" he inquired tenderly, disguising his tones as much as possible, when the voice of his wife sounded in the receiver.

Receiving the required assurance that it was indeed "dearie" he pursued the advantage with the further irquiry:

"Can you meet me this afternoon in Hammond at the postoffice."

Mrs. Rosen could and would.

At the hour appointed Rosen was at the trysting place. Fire was in his eyes and he glowered at every man that passed while he waited, so that one or two of the coarser sort demanded to know, "Who're you looking at?"

Then Mrs. Rosen appeared. She was attired in what Mr. Rosen considered entirely too much style merely for the keeping of an engagement with a man other than himself, and he thought she frowned with vexation when she saw him instead of the man he believed she expected.

So, without a word, he stepped up and boxed her ears.

He was about to do it again, when Mrs. Rosen recovering from her amazement, screamed "Murder!" twice, and two cops grabbed Rosen.

Can you believe your senses?

When two of them, taste and smell, having been impaired if not utterly destroyed, by Nasal Catarrh, are fully restored by Ely's Cream Balm, can you doubt that this remedy deserves all that has been said of it by the thousands who have used it? It is applied directly to the affected air-passage and begins its healing work at once. Why not get it today? All druggists or mailed by Ely Bros., 56 Warren Street, New York, on receipt of 50 cents.

NEW CATHOLIC MARRIAGE LAWS.

In the Catholic churches of the diocese of Richmond the encyclical recently issued by Pope Pius X., which will govern the marriage of Catholics after Easter, is now being read and explained by the parish priests. The following is published with the authority of Bishop Van de Vyver as an exposition of the principal prescriptions which will effect all Catholics:

"In regard to espousals, or betrothals, no engagements or mutual promises to marry made on or after next Easter, will have an effect before the church, unless they have been contracted in writing, signed or marked by both the parties and by either the parish priest, or the ordinary of the place, or at least by two witnesses.

"In regard to marriages of Catholics, those only will be valid which are contracted before a parish priest, meaning here one having charge of souls, or an ordinary; that is, a bishop, within their own territory, or by a priest delegated by either of these and at least two witnesses. Where such a priest cannot be found, parties may, when necessary, after a month, contract privately in presence of two witnesses; and, in danger of death, they may marry before any priest and two witnesses.

"Hence, in the future, persons that are, or ever were, Catholics, cannot, as they could heretofore, contract a valid marriage before a non-Catholic minister, a magistrate or 'squire of any kind or privately between themselves. Before the church and before God such unions, even when sanctioned by the State, will be a mere concubinage, which, to become a valid marriage, will require not only the blessing of the priest, but the very renewal of the matrimonial contract, in the presence of the duly accredited representative of the church; and the persons who thus married before a minister will yet continue to incur the excommunication reserved to a bishop for absolution.

"Marriages of Catholics, contracted in the manner described above, are valid and indissoluble; but, therefore, they are not always lawful. To be allowed and free from sin they must be celebrated before the own pastor of the parties, who, as a rule, should be the pastor of the bride, or before a priest deputed or allowed by him.

"Let the faithful, parents as well as their children who are intending to marry, bear in mind these salutary regulations, and let them act accordingly. By the observance of them, many ill-considered unions, followed by dissentions, separations and would-be divorces, will be avoided and the family life of Catholics will be pacified, purified and strengthened. Marriages attempted, but illegal and null, will be avoided, annulments and divorces and the consequent scandals which disrupt families, deprive children of their natural protectors and threaten the social life of the nation will cease to be so frequent. It will be easier to live up to the precept of Christ: 'What God hath joined together let no man put asunder. (Matt. xix. 6.)'

Sale of Oriental Rugs. Nearly Half Price

We have withdrawn from stock all the small lots and one-of-a-kind Oriental Rugs, and offer them at nearly half former prices.

They all are handsome pieces, genuine Orientals, woven by hand in the Orient, in the rich mellow tones and characteristic designs. Some of them are very old and unusual in coloring and pattern.

They are all strictly perfect, and the values represented are not sentimental ones, but are based on the real worth of the goods. The new prices make them exceptional values.

Housefurnishing Department.

The vast area of the fifth floor of our establishment is devoted to goods and exhibits which at this time have very special interest for every woman who is the head of a home. It presents varied and attractive collections of Cut Glass, Pressed Glass, China, and Porcelain for the table. Also Kitchen Furnishings and Utensils, Laundry Requisities, House-cleaning Necessities, and Helps—all the appurtenances of the corresponding department of housekeeping in a well-equipated home.

Just now we are offering quite a number of new inventions and devices that are absolutely necessary, or that will help materially in the conduct of the dining room and kitchen and other parts of the house.

Upholstery Dept.

To keep our workrooms busy, we will make specially low estimates for the following classes of work:

WEDNESDAY EVENING, MAR. 18, 1908.

THE LATEST number of La Question Sociale, the leading organ of the anarchists, published in Patterson, N. J., says:

We want everybody to be with us. We invite everybody to get together and arm themselves. Seventy-five per cent. have only a knife in the house which will cut only onions. It will be a good thing for everybody to have a gun. When we are ready the first thing to do is to break into the armory and seize the rifles and ammunition. Then all the people will be with us as soon as they see this. The next thing to do is to get hold of the police station, and when the police see they are not strong enough the chief of police will ask for soldiers. Even at that the dynamite is easy to get for us. Twenty-five cents' worth will blow a big iron door down. We don't want to forget that the dynamite will help us win. Two or three of us can defy a regiment of soldiers without war. We will start, when no one is thinking anything about it. Then we can beat them man for man. At that time show no sympathy for any soldiers, even if they be sons of the people. As soon as we get hold of the police station it is our victory. The thing is to kill the entire force. If not, they will kill us. After we have done this, the first thing to do is to look out for ourselves first and then for the people who helped us. We must get into the armory, and in case we cannot, then we will blow it down with dynamite. Then, when we are ready, we must set fire to three or four houses in different locations on the outskirts, which will bring out the fire department and all the police. This will be an easy thing to do, as the police and firemen will be on the outskirts.

It is said that 2,000 copies of this paper go through the mails to every State in the union, the greatest number going to Virginia and Vermont. Hinton Rowan Helper's book, "The Impending Crisis," was not allowed in Virginia in 1860. Here's something more baneful than anything Helper ever wrote.

DAN RICE, a well-known circusman of the olden time, is reported to have said he had traveled all over the world and had never met boys who exceeded those of Alexandria in mischievousness. Were he on the road today he would find some in other places not only exceeding them in mischievousness but manifesting a spirit of maliciousness which would be frowned upon among savages. A number of youths, it will be remembered, engaged in a riot in Ann Arbor, Mich., a few nights ago. They fought the police and members of the fire department, and before they were subdued they caused damage to property amounting to between $2,000 and $3,000. In Boston yesterday while the Evacuation Day parade was passing along one of the principal streets of the city boys stoned a carriage containing the Mayor and Congressman O'Connell. They persisted in their outrageous conduct by following the carriage and when it reached another street it was bombarded by a volley of stones. A pupil of Green Spring public school, Frederick county, Va., is charged with stoning a United States flag that had been raised at the school house recently, and also with assault and battery on his teacher. Such acts are commentaries on the rising generation.

JUST for the asking, Mr. P. K. Hoffman, of Staunton, has received a letter from Corporation Commissioner Prentiss, informing him that since his complaint had been received and investigated, the railroads had ordered trains entering Virginia to stop hereafter at Alexandria, so that travelers desiring to do so might purchase tickets to Virginia points on the Chesapeake and Ohio under the 2-cent. rate law. Mr. Hoffman complained that he had to buy a ticket to Covington to get to Staunton, when he left Washington recently on the four o'clock train. The injustice of the railroad company in issuing such an order was so glaring that the commissioners promptly reversed it as soon as their attention was called to the matter. And they would right the injustice done Alexandria by the railroads in running their trains around, instead of through the city as formerly if the matter were properly presented to them.

MAYOR BAKER of Winchester, yesterday began the preparation of a list of persons who are regarded as habitual drunkards under the action of the Byrd liquor law, and the announcement that such a list will be posted has caused a great stir in view of the fact that many heretofore unsuspected by most people are included. Official lists are about to be posted conspicuously in all saloons. When Mayor Pall, of this city commences the preparation of a similar list there will be a stampede of Alexandrians to the hill timber.

THE Chinese government is sending [illegible] special experts to the United States for the purpose of studying our currency system. This calls from the New York Tribune the suggestion that, "considering the fame of Chinese puzzles we may reasonably hope that the learned Dr. Chin Tao Chen will discover the solution of our greatest one."

THE GRAND JURY, as anticipated, in its report today practically condemned a number of buildings in this city, including some of the public school houses. The report will do the city no good, and the exact result of the jury's action is not now known so far as the schools are concerned. Other buildings may be rented and converted into temporary school rooms, but in this case the schools will be scattered and in a measure disorganized. At any rate it will require some time to erect a new school building even when the money therefor is secured. A suggestion of some of the members of the grand jury and of the court is that the money for a new building be raised either by a special levy or by the City Council not allowing the usual 10 per cent. discount on the annual tax bills.

IN THE death of William Pinkney Whyte not only has Maryland lost an able representative and a learned and brilliant lawyer, but the country at large. He had been in public life for sixty years, beginning his career as a member of the Maryland Legislature and was still in the harness, but as a member of the United States Senate, when death overtook him. Maryland has produced a galaxy of great men in recent years, prominent among whom have been Reverdy Johnson, Arthur P. Gorman and William Pinkney Whyte.

From Washington

Correspondence of the Alexandria Gazette.

Washington, D. C., March 18.

Fully two hundred and fifty delegates representing every international and national labor union together with a large number from the unaffiliated railway organization met this morning for what is undoubtedly the most significant meeting in the history of the labor movement. The Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Engineers, together with the trainmen, conductors and switchmen, although not connected with the American Federation of Labor, are, by special request, in attendance. This is the first time a meeting purely political in its significance has been held by the authority of the general board of the federation. The appointment of two committees was decided upon today by the conference, one to draft new measures for the relief of labor and to prepare for their introduction to Congress through influential members, and the second to outline an appeal to the working men of the United States asking for support of these measures. The conference was called to order at 10:30 by Vice-President James O'Connell, President Gompers was chosen chairman and outlined in an opening speech "the failure of Congress to give labor any relief." Thereafter addresses were made by members of the executive council—all of whom were present except John Mitchell and James Duncan. A general discussion followed. Great secrecy is maintained concerning the subjects discussed, and President Gompers denies the speakers referred to the formation of a new political party.

Members of Congress who have been almost momentarily expecting a red hot presidential message on the executive's pet project to amend the Sherman anti-trust law, are today quoting the familiar "off again, on again, gone again Flannagan" to size up the situation. Two days ago, those who saw the President, emerged from his office professing to have "positive information" that he would send in the message within a few days. Two or three Senators were so sure that he had a message in preparation, that they actually declared they had read portions of the communication, and that it was warmer than tabasco sauce. Perhaps they were stretching their imaginations a bit, for yesterday the President not only assured at least one responsible gentleman that he had no present intention of sending Congress a message, but he denied most emphatically the statement that a portion of the message was "already in print." He added that at one time he had contemplated the advisability of sending in a message with the bill which is now being framed at his request, and which Representative Heyburn, chairman of the interstate and foreign commerce committee will introduce in the House, but after "ascertaining the sentiment of Congress" he had abandoned the idea and would allow the bill to be introduced without comment from him.

The sub-committee of the House, appointed to report what action should be taken on the attempt to impeach Lebbeus R. Wilfley, judge of the United States extra territorial court at Shanghai, China, has practically finished its work and it is understood will report to House impeachment. Representative Walrof asked for impeachment upon charges made by Loren Andrews, et al, lawyers of Shanghai, who claimed Judge Wilfley had brought reproach and scandal on the United States by his biased and unfair rulings in the orient. Wilfley has already been exonerated by President Roosevelt as well praised for his conduct in "cleaning up" the American colony in the Chinese city.

Official reports received at the State Department today from Minister Furniss at Port au Prince indicate that the crisis in Haiti has passed. The minister of foreign affairs has announced to the French and German ministers that the refugees in their legations would be permitted to embark, and the arrival of the warships has had a pacifying effect. It is now anticipated that the difficulty will be disposed of with the release of the refugees and no further complications will ensue so long as the foreign powers are eliminated.

The Hepburn bill to put a tax of fifty cents on the $100 in all stock transactions has been tucked away in a pigeon hole in the room of the committee on ways and means, and there it will remain. There is not the slightest chance that the House leaders will allow it to get out of the committee.

The new battleship New Hampshire was formally accepted by the government today from her builders, the New York Ship Building Company, at the League Island navy yard.

The condition of Florida's new Senator, William J. Bryan, who has been ill of typhoid fever for some time, is said to be quite serious today.

In case Senator LaFollette is able to conclude his speech on the Aldrich financial bill tomorrow Senator Aldrich expects to get a final vote on the passage of the measure on Friday.

Representative Richmond P. Hobson, of Alabama, today reasserted that Lawrence Spear, naval constructor of the Electric Boat Company, came to him last November and made the overture to him to have him put on the committee on naval affairs if he "stood right" on submarine legislation. When asked what he thought of Spear's contradiction of him, Mr. Hobson said: "What I said before the committee was absolutely correct. Also, Mr. Spear made the same overture to my secretary. My secretary will testify to this. He asked to be heard by the investigation committee yesterday, but the committee refused to hear him. I shall write an official letter today to Mr. Boutelle, chairman of the committee, and ask that my secretary be heard. That will show that Spear said he had the influence with the Speaker to make me a member of the naval affairs committee."

Establishment of a national university in this city, as advocated by the national association of university presidents and the National Educational Association, is provided in a bill introduced in the House today by Representative McKinley, of Illinois.

It was announced here today that the battleship fleet will arrive at Manila about September 15, and that Rear Admiral Wm. H. Emory, who will command the second squadron at this time will be relieved from duty about 30, just prior to the fleet's departure homeward bound. The vacancy will be filled by Capt. Wm. P. Potter, now commanding the Vermont.

It appears that the Duke of Abruzzi, who is reported engaged to Miss Katherine Elkins, daughter of United States Senator Elkins, left Rome in February rather mysteriously, and though he promised to send his address to the king, he failed to do so.

A dispatch from Lakewood, N. J., says that with his every appearance showing that he is recovering from the attack of grip which laid him up part of the winter, former Grover Cleveland today quietly celebrated his 71st anniversary. Many friends were on hand to congratulate him.

Because his guardian, Frederick Ordeman, a Frederick county, Md., farmer with whom he had lived since his father was killed in a runaway accident in Indiana fifteen years ago, forbade his marriage to a girl older than himself, eighteen-year-old Fred Alvey yesterday afternoon took a shotgun, and going into a field, shot himself in the stomach. The powder flash set his clothing afire, and when Mr. Ordeman found the lifeless body soon afterward it was burning.

Sixtieth Congress.

Washington, Mar. 18.

SENATE.

In opening the session of the Senate to day with prayer Chaplain Hale made feelings reference to the death of Senator Whyte, of Maryland. After a brief but eloquent eulogy of the deceased statesman by his colleague, Senator Rayner, resolutions regret were adopted by the Senate and then, as a further mark of respect the body ajourned until tomorrow.

In accordance with the expressed wishes of the family there will be no other official recognition of the Senator's death than that which accured today and the eulogies which will be delivered on a later occasion. No congressional committee will be appointed to attend the funeral. This will be the first time in many years that this custom has not been observed.

HOUSE.

In the opening of the session of the House today, Chaplain Condon referred touchingly in his morning prayer to the death of Senator Whyte, of Maryland.

More pensioners died during the past year than fought on either side at the battle of Shiloh in 1862. This was the statement made in the House today when the $150,000,000 general pension bill was up for passage.

It was shown that 45,768 names had been stricken from the nation's honor roll by death. Of this number, 31,201 were civil war veterans. It was predicted that in nine years civil war veterans will be as scarce as are Mexican war veterans today.

The McCumber act, which puts the soldiers on the pension roll, according to age, without examination, increased the annual pension roll over $15,000,000. In 1905, there were 1,004,000 pensioners, the highest number ever known, but the next year this dwindled to 985,000 and not withstanding the increase during the last year on the McCumber bill the number went down to 967,371. This number is now the smallest since 1893.

Mr. Hull, of Tennessee, in speaking of President Roosevelt said, "He has contributed more than all other influences of the past and present generation to the creation of a line of vicious and evil precedents that would be a lasting curse to the worst despotism in the world."

Wants a Divorce.

Berlin, Mar. 18.—The former Crown Princess of Saxony, whose husband divorced her some time ago when she eloped with Tutor Guiron, afterward marrying Vilosset Tolselli, is about to get a divorce herself from Tolselli to wed a French writer with whom she has fallen violently in love. The Tolsellis have quarreled bitterly of late, the wife accusing the husband of cruelty and other bad qualities of which she says she knew nothing until after marrying him.

Town Burning.

Minneapolis, Mar. 18.—The town of Braham, Minn., on the Great Northern Railroad, sixty miles from this city, is being wiped out by flames. All telegraph wires are down. The Minneapolis fire department is rushing apparatus by a special train.

Virginia News.

State Senator Don P. Halsey is to be a candidate for Congress in the Sixth district against Congressman Glass.

Alexander Harman, a brother of State Treasurer A. W. Harman, died suddenly in Richmond yesterday aged 51 years.

Rev. Benjamin F. Smith, a superannuated member of the Virginia Methodist conference, died in Charlottesville yesterday of double pneumonia.

Roy R. Lupton, son of Dr. John S. Lupton, the pioneer fruit grower of that section, died yesterday at his father's home in Frederick county after an illness of pneumonia, aged thirty-four years.

The local option election held in Pocahontas on December 19th, 1907, in which the drys won by ten majority, was yesterday declared null and void by Hon. W. J. Henson, judge of the Tazewell Circuit Court.

The Fairfax grand jury yesterday refused to indict Edward Poland, of Pleasant Valley, charged with the killing of "Rom" Maddox, near Pendar, March 6. The evidence showed that the killing was done in self defense.

A bill was passed by the House of Representatives yesterday authorizing the Secretary of War to furnish condemned cannon and cannon balls to the city of Winchester, to be placed at the old headquarters of General George Washington.

Superintendent Eggleston, of the department of public instruction, says he will use his efforts toward having the State Board of Education adopt the single book list for seven years, and that he would be glad to see such a course pursued. The board is to meet in Richmond March 31.

Judge R. T. W. Duke, of Charlottesville, chairman democratic congressional committee of Seventh district, has given notice that a primary election will be held June 10th if there is opposition to Congressman James Hay, of Madison. In case of no opposition the committee will declare Mr. Hay the nominee.

The following rural routes have been established in Virginia: An additional route at Courtland, Southampton county, and at Midland, Fauquier county, the service to commence May 1st, and new routes at Dinwiddie, Dinwiddie county, Swetnam, Fairfax county, and an additional route at Parke, Grayson county, the service to commence June 1st.

J. D. Uzzle, the negro editor, of Onancock, Accomac county, charged with feloniously shooting Garland Belote, a white man, in Accomac, last September, thereby inciting a race riot, which required the presence of two companies of Norfolk militia to quell, was acquitted in the Corporation Court of Norfolk yesterday, the case having been heard on appeal from Judge Blackstone's court in Hampton, in which Uzzle was found guilty and sentenced to three years in the penitentiary.

DOCTOR LEON ARRESTED.

Dr. Edward L. Thompson, alias Dr. Leon, was arrested yesterday afternoon in Washington. He is held in connection with the death of Lillian Pettit, a waitress, twenty-one years old, as the result of an alleged operation. Being ill, he is a prisoner in his home, with a policeman standing guard. Bail to the amount of $15,000 has been demanded for his release.

Just before her death the girl made a statement in which she said that Dr. Leon performed an operation upon her on March 10. She also implicated another man, whose identity has not been disclosed.

Dr. Leon is already under bail, having been indicted on a similar charge some time ago. He was named in the Strother case, but no action was taken against him. It is said that he was once convicted of murder, but won out on an appeal, and other indictments, it is said, are now pending against him.

Lillian Pettit was employed as a waitress in a Washington department store. She is said to have been a remarkably pretty girl, and had a host of admirers. She was an orphan, but had four sisters living in different sections of the city. The girl went to Washington from Virginia about ten years ago.

Dr. Leon has been arrested many times on the charge of performing illegal operations. Records at Washington police headquarters show that he has been arrested eight times during the past four years.

FATAL BLOW.

A right-hand punch to the neck sent Willie Robinson to the floor unconscious in the semi-final of the 126-pound amateur boxing tourney at the Bijou Theater, Philadelphia, last night. The crowd that filled the building wildly cheered Young Nelson, the victor. Ten minutes later a white-faced referee dismissed the crowd. The smash in the neck had taken the life, as well as consciousness. The ten-second collapse on the floor had lengthened into eternity. Before the fatal bout that cost his life the dead boy had already fought once last night, beating his man soundly. Young Nelson, whose real name is Charles Wolf, had also had a previous trial, and scored a knockout.

CONGRESSIONAL.

In the Senate yesterday the legislative, executive and judicial appropriation bill was read through for the first time and committee amendments ageeed to.

Senator Bacon endeavored during the debate on the bill to secure the adoption of an amendment to raise the salaries of clerks in the executive departments.

Senator Aldrich withdrew, with the approval of the finance committee, the railroad bond feature of the currency bill.

In the House general debate on the pension appropriation bill was continued.

At 4:49 o'clock the House adjourned until today at at noon.

PURSUED BY A NUDE MAN.

Mrs. Edward Dougherty, while driving through the woods, near Sherwin station, Mullica Hill, N. J., Monday afternoon, had an exciting experience with a nude man who chased her through the woods. She whipped up her horse and reaching the town gave the alarm. Mrs. Dougherty said the man was large and powerfully built and wore a full beard. He is supposed to be the same man that was seen near the same spot some time ago. About 50 men formed a posse and searched the woods, but no trace of the man could be found.

Conditions in Hayti.

Port au Prince, Mar. 18.—The embarkation of Haytian revolutionary refugees aboard the French cruiser has already begun from the consulates at Gonaives.

The French, German and British diplomatic representatives are looking after their departure and guarding against any demonstration.

The President of Hayti is plainly doing his best to prevent any outbreak of violence against the men the powers are deporting. Strong forces of troops guard the streets of Port au Prince, Gonaives, St. Marc and Port de Paix, and no public gatherings are permitted.

The executive has made it clear, however, that he considers himself as having granted concessions to the foreign governments upon which they could not justly have insisted. There is no doubt he would have resisted had he been powerful enough to do so, and that an immediate effort will be made to secure American assistance in concluding treaties. There is no doubt an apology will be forthcoming.

That the President believed Port au Prince was in danger of bombardment when the foreign warships arrived is certain. He figured, however, that he might as well fall by an overwhelming outside force as at the hands of the revolutionists the consulates have been sheltering.

Steamers Collide.

Hoboken, N. J., Mar. 18.—The big north German Lloyd liner Kronprinz Wilhelm in today from Hamburg and channel ports, had a narrow escape from being sent to the bottom as the result of a collision just north of Quarantine in the fog today. As it was she had a gash torn in her stern, but luckily all of the damage was above the water line and neither the propellers nor the steering gear was damaged. The Kronprinz was able to make her dock under her own steam. The vessel she was in collision with was the British tramp Crown of Castile and it was not damaged. The shock of the collision shook the liner from stem to stern and frightened passengers began running out of state rooms and about the decks, believing the steamer was in danger of sinking. When the fog lifted the Kronprinz continued her trip up the river and docked just before noon.

One of the stewards on the big liner was seriously injured in the collision. He was in his bunk when one of the displaced stern plates was hurled in on him. The man's hands and feet were mangled, but it is not believed his injuries will prove fatal.

Trouble Expected in Berlin.

Berlin, Mar. 18.—Troops are fairly swarming in Berlin today in anticipation of outbreaks incident to the 24 meetings convened by the socialists in the city and suburbs in celebration of the sixtieth anniversary of the Berlin revolution of March 18, 1848. Though employers had generally warned their men that an early cessation of work today would be followed by a lockout until March 23, few employes remained at their posts after 3 p. m. when the meeting began. Revolutionary speeches and fierce attacks on the Kaiser, the government and society have already commenced. The gatherings will continue until late tonight, and the authorities fear they will not end without rioting. The minister of the interior has issued a public warning that rioters will be mercilessly shot down and he has appealed to all good citizens to remain indoors.

Warning from England.

Lisbon, Mar. 18.—England has warned Portugal, it is reported, that the British Minister at Lisbon will be withdrawn if the government grants a general political amnesty without previous investigation of the circumstances of King Carlos and Prince Luizs' assassination and a trial of the regicides.

To disregard so grave a crime, England is said to have informed the Portugese, would be to place Portugal in the category as Servia, whence England recalled her diplomatic representative because King Peter's government dared not punish the assassins of his predecessor, King Alexander, the latter's queen and several of the members of their court.

General Stoessel.

St. Petersburg, Mar. 18.—General Stoessel has been granted a few more days liberty to arrange his personal affairs and will then be committed to a fortress to serve the ten years' sentence imposed upon him for surrendering Port Arthur before he had, in the court martial's opinion, exhausted all means for its defense. In refusing to grant a free pardon, though commuting the death sentence imposed by the military court, the Czar is known to have acted in accordance with the wishes of Stoessel's foes in the war ministry. It is not likely the prisoner's confinement will be rigorous, although but few think he will outlive his term. He is not only growing old, but has been in broken health ever since the war.

Wounded in Duel.

St. Petersburg, Mar. 18.—General Fock severely wounded General Smirnoff early today in a duel growing out of the trial of the Port Arthur defenders for surrendering the fortress to the Japanese before exhausting their resources for prolonging the siege. Smirnoff furnished most of the testimony on which Generals Stoessel, Fock and Reiss were brought to trial, but he became involved in the case himself and was tried and acquitted by the same courtmartial which heard the cases of the first trio. Fock sent the challenge to Smirnoff because he considered that the latter had reflected on his honor. Smirnoff was acquitted and Fock censured by the military court.

Funeral of Senator Whyte.

Baltimore, Md., Mar. 18.—The funeral of United States Senator William Pinkney Whyte, who died of a severe attack of erysipelas at his home in this city last night, will take place tomorrow afternoon. Services will be read at Emanuel Protestant Church, after which the remains of the late Senator will be interred in Greenmount cemetery. The funeral will be quiet and private, the family having requested that the Senate refrain from participating in any official capacity.

Senator-elect John Walter Smith will probably be elected to serve out Senator Whyte's unexpired term.

Runaway Pair in Love.

Burlington, N. J., Mar. 18—Expressing the fondest devotion for each other and declaring they would be married as soon as the girl could procure a divorce from her husband, Mrs. Margaret McConehay Cook, 19 years old, and Binney W. Earl, 20 years, were brought from Baltimore, yesterday, where they were arrested on Monday Earl is charged with the larceny of $300 in gold and jewelry from his mother, Mrs. Frank Earl, and his companion with being an accomplice. The funds nearly all vanished during their brief but wild escapade in Atlantic City.

After a private hearing in the office of Counsellor Reginald Branch, attorney for Mrs. Earl, yesterday afternoon, the girl was released and young Earl, who is the probable heir to the wealth of his grandfather, William G. Binney, was placed in the custody of Constable Anderson Shinn, who took him to Philadelphia and placed him in a sanitarium.

Earl's companion is the girl-wife of William Cook, of East Burlington, but the pair lived apart. Yesterday was the second anniversary of their wedding.

Weds Pretty Widow to Keep Her at Home.

Atlantic City, N. J., March 18.—Intent on preserving to his household the services of Mrs. B. F. Freas, a pretty Philadelphia widow, who had acted as his housekeeper for three days, William Harris, engineer of the Longport Water Works, married her. Harris is a widower. Wishing to keep his children in his home, he advertised in Philadelphia for a maid who would act as a housekeeper. Mrs. Freas got the place. She had been with her new employer from Wednesday to Saturday when she received a visit rom her mother, who immediately objected to her being the only servant in the house with a man. The housekeeper liked her place, and was in tearful altercation with her parent when Harris returned home.

"Why, I can't get along without her," Harris told the older woman.

"Well, I won't allow her to stay," said the mother.

"I'd rather marry her than lose her," Harris asserted, stoutly. And he did, going at once to a nearby parsonage where he clinched for life his hold on the services of the housekeeper.

Miners' Convention.

Indianapolis, Ind., Mar. 18.—At 10 a. m. the miners national convention received word from the scale committee that it had not written out its reports in full, but it would be ready for submission at 1:30 this afternoon. The convention then adjourned until 1:30 p. m.

It is authoritatively stated that the scale committee at this afternoon's session will present two reports. The vote for the majority report will be 15 and for the minority report, which will be presented by Vice President Lewis and his friends, will have six votes. The majority report which is favored by President Mitchell and his friends will advocate settlement by districts as was done two years ago. This, in all probability, will be adopted by the convention, but it will only be after a hot fight.

Pastor Begs Pardon.

Pittsburg, March 18.—"I am sincerely penitent, I fell a victim to my temper, and I ask the charity of my brother ministers," declared the Rev. J. H. Vessy, of Pittsburg, now registrar of Westminster College, in a public apology, made yesterday before the members of Allegheny Presbytery of the United Presbyterian Church. The preacher submitted a lengthy recital of the incident at the college detailing how he had received complaints that a number of college boys and girls were dancing in a parlor. He ordered the young people to stop, and they refused, one of the boys declaring his conduct not that of a gentleman.

"Then," said the minister, "I so far forgot myself as to strike him with my clenched fist."

The apology was referred to a committee of three.

Orchard Sentenced.

Boise, Idaho, Mar. 18.—Harry Orchard, self-confessed murderer of former Governor Frank Steunenberg and 19 other men, today heard himself sentenced to death by Judge Fremont Wood in the District Court. Judge Wood gave his sentence in written form, in which he recommended that the State board of pardons commute the sentence to life imprisonment, giving as a reason that Orchard told the truth in the trials of Haywood and Pettibone. When sentence was pronounced by the court Orchard was taken back to the county jail under heavy guard. He was unaffected by the court's action.

Hau Victim of Consumption.

Berlin, Mar. 18.—Carl Hau, formerly a professor at George Washington University, Washington, D. C., and convicted a few months ago of murdering his mother-in-law, Frau Molitor, has been pronounced a victim of quick consumption. His case is declared hopeless. Hau was sentenced to death for the Molitor murder, but secured a commutation to life imprisonment. He is at Bruchsal prison.

Magdalena Bay, Mex., Mar. 18.—(By wireless to San Diego)—Gunners on the battleships of Admiral Evans's fleet are averaging exceptionally high in the record target practice now in progress, but so far no records have been broken.

New York Stock Market.

New York, March 18.—For a short time after the opening the market showed a degree of strength due to buying by some of the larger room traders who had taken the bull side yesterday and made a vigorous demonstration this morning apparently for the purpose of creating an opportunity to realize profits. Their efforts caused advances ranging from fractions to over 1 point in a number of the more active railroad issues, but they created no following and a moderate supply of stocks later in the hour caused a moderate general downward movement. At the end of the first hour a moderate rally was in progress all around the room and prices then were slightly changed from last night.

BURNS THE VICTOR.

Tommy Burns, the American heavyweight champion, made short work of Jem Roche, the Irish champion, in their contest last night at the Theater Royal, Dublin, for the world's heavyweight championship. Practically only one blow was struck, Burns knocking Roche out when hardly more than a minute of the first round had been completed, by a short hook to the jaw. So quickly did the end come that the great crowd which filled the theater in the expectation of seeing the Irishman put up a good fight for the title hardly realized what had happened.

When the men entered the ring it was evident that the sluggish Roche was no match for the more experienced Burns. They sparred for less than a minute, the Irishman acting altogether on the defensive and the American endeavoring to find an opening. Then Burns feinted and quickly put a short, sharp right to the jaw and Roche went down. He was badly dazed, and although he struggled to regain his feet was unable to do so before the fatal 10 seconds were counted.

The two heavyweights came to the ring in their street clothes and a quarter of an hour was occupied in making preparations for the fight.

On the stroke of the gong Burns jumped to the center of the ring, which was an 18-foot affair, and started his usual tactics of trying to draw out his opponent. This seemed to annoy Roche who angrily struck down Burns' arm and then covered his face with both gloves to protect it from a threatened blow. Burns, however, was looking for a better chance, and a moment later he feinted with his left and shot his right over to the jaw, which was entirely unprotected. The Irishman went to the canvas, but not heavily. He slid along on his side and then rolled over, face downwards. Very few of the spectators, even those on the stage, were quick enough to see how it was done.

Immediately after the count Roche got to his feet, but staggered about the stage. When he had recovered himself he went over smilingly to congratulate the winner.

The fight last night was for a purse of $7,500, which was put up by a syndicate of which Richard Croker, the former Tammany leader, was a member, and a side bet of $2,500. In addition Burns had $7,000 on himself at odds of 3 to 1. The ringside betting was 7 to 2 on the American.

He is now considering an offer provisionally made by the Dublin syndicate for a match with "Bill" Squires under the same terms as that with Roche.

MUST PAY IN PERSON.

The Court of Appeals yesterday handed down a solitary opinion before taking a recess till the June term at Wytheville. The case decided yesterday is that of Tazewell and others against Herman, treasurer of the city of Norfolk.

The petitioners sought to prevent the treasurer from embracing in his list of voters the names of such persons as had not personally paid their taxes in order to qualify them to vote. The treasurer demurred to the petition for a mandamus, and the court sustained the demurrer. The case was appealed by the petitioners. The opinion of the court is that each voter must personally pay his own taxes. There is no evasion of the matter. It is incumbent on each voter to attend to this matter. In concluding the opinion, the court says:

The case comes up from the law and chancery court of the city of Norfolk. The point involved in the case is whether the treasurer of a city or county, under the constitution, in making and filing the list of the names of all persons who have paid poll taxes, shall embrace in such list the names of all persons who have paid their poll taxes or only the names of those who have personally paid the same. The petitioners undertook to have a mandamus issued against the Norfolk treasurer compelling him to omit from the list such voters as had not personally paid their poll taxes on or before Dec. 7, 1907. The mandamus asked for was denied by the law and chancery court of Norfolk and hence the appeal.

The Supreme Court today reverses the lower tribunal and says: We are of opinion, therefore, that the law and chancery court erred in sustaining the demurrer to the petition of the plaintiffs in error for a mandamus, and in dismissing the same. Its judgment, therefore, must be set aside, the demurrer overruled and the cause remanded to court with directions to grant the relief prayed for unless the defendant has made and filed since the beginning of this proceeding such a list as he is required to file under section 38 of the constitution, as construed by this court in this opinion.

The opinion discusses the case fully, says that much power is vested in the treasurer, and says that it is the clear intent of the constitution and the statutes that each voter shall pay in person the amount of his poll tax in order to qualify him for exercise of the right of franchise.

DEATH OF SENATOR WHYTE.

United States Senator William Pinkney Whyte died suddenly yesterday evening at his home in Baltimore of heart disease, following an attack of erysipelas. Senator Whyte, who was in his eighty-fourth year, caught cold on Thursday last while on his way to Baltimore on a train after attending to his senatorial duties.

Senator Whyte had filled with distinction almost all the important offices in the State—governor, mayor, attorney general, city solicitor, and many others and passed through the ordeal of public life in the conspicuous procession with fewer scars from public criticism than generally falls to the lot of a public man.

He was born in Baltimore August 9, 1824. He leaves two sons and a number of grandchildren. He was a man of most engaging personality and was devoted to his family. He was twice married, but died a widower.

Senator Whyte was one of the most popular men in public life in Maryland.

Former Gov. John Walter Smith, who has just been elected United States Senator to succeed the late Senator Gorman for the full term beginning March 4, 1909, will probably be elected to fill out the unexpired term to which the late Senator Whyte was elected.

PUBLIC BUILDINGS CONDEMNED

The grand jury of the Corporation Court which has been investigating the conditions of school buildings and other places where public gatherings are held in this city, submitted the following report this morning through their foreman, Mr. Henry Strauss. Copies of the report were ordered to be sent to the City Council, School Board, and officials and teachers of public schools:

HON. LOUIS C. BARLEY, Judge Corporation Court, Alexandria, Va.

Alexandria, Va., March 18, 1908.

Sir:—In compliance with your instructions calling our attention to the necessity of immediate inspection of all buildings in this city used for public gatherings, which included public halls, buildings in which moving picture shows are conducted, hotels, and public school buildings, and to ascertain whether proper precaution had been taken to insure safety in case of fire, and also as to the sanitary conditions, we, the grand jury, beg to submit the following, a report of our investigation:

Washington Street boys' school—In good condition, all doors opened outward, broad halls, no danger to children from fire or panic.

Howell Building for small boys—We find the walls badly cracked, stairway inadequate for an emergency. Cellar full of trash, ceiling very low, ventilation only through open windows.

There are 150 little boys from 7 to 10 years of age housed in this building; should the building catch fire but few on the second and none on the third floor could escape.

This building is unsafe in every respect. An outside iron stairway from the third floor, while it would improve conditions, it is the opinion of this jury that the building should be condemned entirely. The Superintendent of public schools and all teachers who use this building or have been in it, concur with us in condemning same.

We recommend that this building be closed immediately, especially so far as the use of the 3rd floor is concerned.

Peabody Building—This building we consider unsafe, and we recommend that your honor condemn the entire building for school purposes.

Certainly we would be derelict in our duty to this court and false to our oaths as jurymen if we did not recommend the instant closing of the third floor. On this floor 150 little tots from 7 to 10 years of age are housed. We do not believe this building can be made safe for these little ones. In one room we found that they could not reach the fire escape—the window sill being above or on line with their heads. The building is heated by stoves in each room with stove pipes running through plaster and lath partitions. Some doors open inward and others outward, but to keep those little children on the third floor, for a single day, is a responsibility which this jury would refuse to assume.

The ground floor contains two rooms opening on King street which has only light and ventilation from transoms; no windows.

Transoms and doors cannot be left open even on warm days on account of dust and dirt stirred up by passing electric cars and vehicles. To sum the matter up, King street is not the proper street, for a public school building.

The sanitary arrangement of Peabody building is simply a disgrace. There being no sewer connection, the odor from the open well, situated immediately under the windows, separated from the building proper by but a few feet, even on a cold day like Wednesday, was something fearful. What it must be in warm weather can hardly be imagined. These closets are constantly discharging their odor from two small wooden chimneys right in the faces of the children on both the second and third floors. Many improvements could be suggested which would make this building a little safer, but nothing can be done, in the opinion of this jury, that can make said building suitable for a school.

We therefore recommend that this building for school purposes be condemned and a new school building for the girls be built, and that said building be not over two (2) stories high.

Colored School Buildings—Both the colored school buildings we found to be in satisfactory condition, except we would recommend that all doors be changed to open outward. Sanitary conditions could be much improved.

We recommend that all school buildings be connected with sewers.

Braddock House—We recommend that a fire escape be placed on east side, also that the stairway leading to Fairfax street now closed be opened.

Belle Haven Amusement Company—Doors opened inward, but have been changed since our inspection. Floor of operating box should be lined with tin.

Risheill and Curtin's moving picture show—Everything satisfactory.

Sarepta Hall—We recommend that a fire escape be placed on front of this building.

Opera House.—Stove pipe which runs through gallery should be changed; front stairway should be widened and obstructions at top cut away; hose on stage not long enough; door should be cut in partition at southwest corner of gallery, making an entrance to stairway leading to stage, giving people in west side of gallery exit by way of the stage fire escape on Pitt street; place needs a general cleaning.

McBurney's Hall—Stove propped up by bricks, liable to fall at any time, fire escape blocked off by railing. We recommend that this hall be condemned for public gatherings, until such changes as are satisfactory to City Engineer and Chief of Fire Department are made. We strongly recommend that all buildings used for public gatherings be required to have all doors open outwards.

A HERO AMONG HEROES.

Capt. Herbert Bryant, of Alexandria, Va, is visiting his son-in-law and daughter, Dr. and Mrs. Thomas Jellis Kirkpatrick, at the United States army reservation, Sullivan's Island. He called on another ex-Confederate soldier in this city, who had been with him in Lincoln Hospital, Washington D. C., the two having been wounded and captured just before the surrender of the remnant of the Army of Northern Virginia. It was a joyous greeting between the cherished comrades who met for the first time since they parted in hospital in April, 1865.

Capt. Bryant is strikingly attractive in appearance and his manner is gracious and charming. He is comparatively youthful in looks for one who was amongst the earliest in Virginia to volunteer, and who did four years' active service in fighting commands of the Old Dominion. He joined the army as a private and was promoted for conspicuous courage and daring. Capt Bryant was wounded three times. He was adjutant general of Corse's splendid brigade and was one of the most efficient and highly esteemed officers in Pickett's division. His gifts and graces make him an entertaining and a delightful companion. Capt. Bryant was personally acquainted with many prominent South Carolinians in the army, of whom he speaks admiringly and affectionately.—[Charleston, S. C., News.

CONFERENCE WITH OFFICIALS.

General Manager Duke, Chief Engineer Dare and Roadmaster Rice, of the Washington Southern Railway, at the instance of Mr. E. S. Leadbeater, chairman of the committee on streets, came to this city at 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon and held a conference with the members of that committee and City Engineer Dunn in reference to the condition of Fayette street.

The conference lasted over an hour. The railway officials promised to remove the side-track at the intersection of Duke and Fayette streets, leaving but one track throughout the entire length of Fayette street, and agreed to fill in between the rails and put the track in good conditon and to furnish free of cost and place on the ground a high grade of gravel with which to macadamize the street from Duke to Princess street, a distance of five squares, provided the city will pay for the necessary grading and guttering.

The railway officials also offered to furnish the city free of cost the necessary material for macadamizing Cameron street, between Henry and Peyton.

CORPORATION COURT.

[Judge L. C. Barley presiding.]

The grand jury after making their presentment concerning the public buildings, etc., returned the following indictments:

Frank C. Wilkinson, John Penn and John McCuen for grand larceny.

Frank Parker, indicted for grand larceny, was released on bail for his appearance at the second day of the April term.

Com. vs. Wilbert Cook, indicted for feloniously and maliciously shooting T. J. Schneider on Shooter's Hill on Tuesday night, February 11th; jury and case in progress.

While on the stand Cook admitted that he was present at the shooting, but that he did not go to the place with the intention of injuring any one and that he was some distance in the rear of the vehicle when Schneider was shot. Harry Hicks, who is also under indictment for shooting Schneider, corroborated Cook's statement.

A PURIM SOCIAL.

The Council of Jewish Women held a Purim Social in their vestry room at the Temple last night which was well attended and greatly enjoyed. Dr. Stern, of Washington, gave an interesting address both to the children and their elders upon the meaning of Purim. Mr. Louis Greenberg, of Washington, gave several beautiful selections from the operas on the violin accompanied on the piano by Mrs. Barker, of Alexandria. Solos were sung by Mrs. Herman Friedlander and Mr. Frank Boyer, after which refreshments were served.

RUNAWAY.

There was an exciting runaway on West street this morning. A horse attached to a wagon in charge of a colored man took fright and ran off. The man was thrown between the horse and wagon, in which position he was kicked by the animal until he fell, when the wheels of the vehicle passed over him. The horse was stopped later. The driver while painfully bruised, was not seriously injured.

DEATHS.

Mrs. Mary Bartlett, wife of Mr. Geo. Bartlett, died at her home on north Columbus street last night. The deceased was a daughter of Frederick and Martha Bair. She was 23 years old.

Mrs. Margaret E. Green, wife of Mr. H. B. Green, died at her home, 1007 Gibbon street, this morning. The deceased leaves several children. She was a native of King George county.

THE BYRD LIQUOR LAW.

Commonwealth's Attorney Brent and Chief of Police Goods had a consultation this morning in reference to the Byrd liquor law. It is the purpose of the authorities to carry out the provisions of the law, and all interested should take notice and govern themselves accordingly. The law was published in Monday's Gazette.

POLICE COURT.

[Justice H. B. Caton presiding.]

There was but one case disposed of by the Police Court this morning. West Chainney had been arrested at the instance of John Cowling, who charged him with abusive language. The accused was dismissed and the plaintiff fined $5 for disorderly conduct in the court room.

WILL VISIT FRONT ROYAL.

The degree team of Potomac Lodge, No. 33, of Odd Fellows, of this city, will go to Front Royal tomorrow to institute a lodge of the order at that place. The sixty-ninth anniversary of Potomac Lodge will occur tomorrow night.

W. C. T. U.

Mr. L. H. Machen has returned from Richmond and resumed the practice of his profession.

Rev. C. S. Abbott of Washington will preach in Grace Church tonight.

Mr. H. E. Graves, of Alexandria, is in the city on business. Mr. and Mrs. Corbin Glass and Miss Maude Franklin, of Alexandria, are visiting relatives in the city.—[Lynchburg Advance.

Mr. Lewis F. Hoy, formerly of this city, but now of New York, is confined to the home of his parents, on north Washington street, by sickness.

Money can be saved by buying your Shoes at Marshall's, 422 King street.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

The Board of Police Commissioners will meet at 7:30 o'clock tonight.

Mr. S. H. Lunt will tomorrow sell for Mr. M. B. Harlow, trustee, two lots in "Park Addition," in Alexandria county.

Attention of gas consumers is directed to the notice of the Clerk of Gas. Pay your bills and save the 2 cents per 1,000 feet.

It is reported that Mr. W. B. Smoot, a member of the grand jury, has stated that he would undertake to finance the building of a new school house in this city.

A sneak thief entered the cellar of a residence on the east side of St. Asaph street, between Queen and Princess, last night and stole two pounds of meat from a refrigerator.

At St. Mary's Hall last night the members of Alexandria Division, No. 1, Ancient Order of Hibernians, celebrated St. Patrick's Day by initiating a large class of candidates. Following the initiation ceremonies a smoker was held.

The Young Men's Senate at their meeting last night decided that it would be best not to extend the city limits at present. At their next meeting they will discuss the matter of the city paving the bills for gas consumed in Armory Hall.

C. W. Hecox, of Technical High School, has accepted an offer to coach the Virginia Boat Club, of Richmond. Mr. Hecox has tentatively accepted an offer to coach the members of the Old Dominion Boat Club, of Alexandria.

Samuel Thornton was arrested at Leesburg today by Deputy U. S. Marshal Joseph F. Glover on a charge of violating the internal revenue laws. The accused will be given a hearing before U. S. Commissioner Garnett in this city od Friday next at 3 p. m.

Mr. Robert S. Barrett is now occupying the second floor of his building on south Fairfax street, his composing room having been moved from the first floor. The Rechabites who have been using the second floor have moved to north Pitt street over the Myers Bros. carriage works.

BACKACHE

"I wrote you for advice," writes Lelia Hagood, of Sylvia, Tenn., "about my terrible backache and monthly pains in my abdomen and shoulders. I had suffered this way nine years and five doctors had failed to relieve me. On your advice I aook Wine of Cardui, which at once relieved my pains and now I am entirely cured. I am sure that Cardui saved my life."

It is a safe and reliable remedy for all female diseases, such as periodical pains, irregularity, dragging down sensations, headache, dizziness, backache, etc.

WEDNESDAY EVENING, MAR. 18, 1908.

Atmospheric Weight.

At the sea level, with the barometer marking 30 inches and the thermometer 32 degrees F., a cubic foot of pure dry air weighs about 565 grains troy. The weight of a cubic foot of water vapor under the same conditions is only 352 grains. When vapor is mixed with dry air, therefore, the resulting compound is lighter—that is to say, damp air is lighter than dry air. In stormy weather the air is lighter than it is in fair weather and not heavier, as many persons suppose. When smoke hangs about the surface of the earth, it shows that the air is lighter than the smoke. When the air is dry, it is heavier than the smoke, and the latter therefore ascends. The weight of the earth's atmosphere, or, in other words, the pressure exerted upon the earth by the atmosphere, is about the same as would be exerted by a flood of water thirty-three feet in height over the globe. At the sea level the pressure of the atmosphere is about fifteen pounds to the square inch. A man of ordinary size thus bears all the time a pressure of about 30,000 pounds, but he does not feel it, because the pressure is exerted in every direction—above, below and around him—and because his body is filled with air and other fluids that press outward, thus maintaining a state of equilibrium.

England and France.

It has been playfully observed that the mutual antipathies and attractions of England and France resemble to a curious degree those of man and woman, perhaps one might say of man and woman attached to each other by a mariage de convenance-geographique. "We do all naturally hate the French," Mr. Pepys observed long ago. (Does any nation, by the way, love its neighbor?) France has never ceased to interest us or indeed to inspire part of our ideas and conduct.

Rightly do her historians descant of the glorious role she has played in the general work of civilisation, of the "sympathetic genius which has seized and translated for Europe the ideas of reason, justice and all the theory of life, private and public," which has "preserved even in the useful and frivolous the tradition of art," of the idealist perseverance, whose experiments have saved the world so much suffering and "made of her follies the wisdom of other nations."—George H. Powell in Fortnightly Review.

We're All Leather Eaters.

"And then," said the arctic explorer, "I ate my leather belt."

"Pooh, what of that? Every mother's son of us eats a pair of shoes a year."

The explorer frowned. "This," he began, "is no laughing"—

But the scientist interrupted him. "I am not jesting, sir. I speak the solemn truth. What is leather? Is it not albumen and tannin? Well, when you add milk to your tea or coffee, the tannin of the one and the albumen of the other unite, and leather results. The leather is in minute particles. Nevertheless it is there. And down it goes. All who drink tea or coffee daily," the scientist concluded, "consume in a year enough leather to make a pair of shoes."

The explorer sneered. "To resume," he said, "I then ate the lining of," etc.—Exchange.

Ahead, Yet Behind.

The nervous foreigner got up and went back to the conductor of the street car.

"Pardong, m'sieur," said he, "but zee car, he run so slow, and why, if you pleeze? Ees it not so?"

"Yep," replied the conductor. "We can't help it, though. You see, the car ahead is behind."

The foreigner's eyes opened wider. "Would you mind saying him again?" he asked apologedically.

"I say," replied the conductor, louder than before, "that the car ahead is behind. See?"

The foreigner returned to his seat. "Zee car-r-r ahead, he ees behind?" said he to himself. "Most wonderful, most astonishing is zis country!"—Judge.

Her First Birth.

Black Sarah was busily employed about our northern kitchen, remarked a prominent housekeeper, when I had occasion to go out there and by way of being pleasant said:

"You are from the south, are you not, Sarah?"

"Law, yes, miss!" was the answer.

"Born in the south?" I continued.

"Originally bawn in Richmond, miss," was the astonishing reply.—Reader Magazine.

Her Fear.

A little girl remarked to her mother, "I am not afraid in the dark."

"Of course not," said the mother.

"I was afraid once, though, when I went into the pantry to get a tart," she added.

"What were you afraid of?"

"I was afraid I would not find the tarts," was the reply.

No Need to Cry.

"Don't cry, Buster," said Jack after the catastrophe. "Napoleon didn't cry every time his brother hit him accidentally on the eye."

"I know that," retorted Buster. "Napoleon did all the hittin' on the eye hisself."

The Squall.

"Where do you suppose that squall is coming from?" asked the amateur yachtsman. "I don't know," replied the head of a small but obstreperous family, "unless it is coming from the cradle of the deep."—Baltimore American.

A swarm of bees contains from 10,000 to 20,000 in a natural state, in a hive from 30,000 to 40,000 bees.

DeWitt's Little Early Risers, small, safe, sure little liver pills. Sold by W. F. Creighton & Co.

Quick climatic changes try strong constitutions and cause, among other evils, nasal catarrh, a troublesome and offensive disease. Sneezing and snuffling, coughing and difficult breathing, and the drip, drip of the foul discharge into the throat—all are ended by Ely's Cream Balm. This honest remedy contains no cocaine, mercury nor other harmful ingredient. Recent cases yield to treatment in a single day. All druggists, 50c, or mailed by Ely Bros., 56 Warren street, New York.

Coincidences.

The strange story told by a defaulting debtor of his being recognized after he had been for six years trying to live down the past is not so strange a story as one which came within the ken of Professor Jowett. A good man went wrong, was caught and sentenced at Liverpool to imprisonment. After the sinner had served his term Jowett and others helped him, and he obtained a colonial editorship where his past was unknown. He did well; was a new man. One day a tornado swept off the roof of his office. Under the roof was discovered a batch of old English papers which had been placed there and forgotten after the mail had brought them. He set members of his staff to work to get out of the derelicts anything which might be interesting enough to print. The first thing that they found was a full report of the trial and conviction of the man himself, their editor, at Liverpool all those years before.—St. James' Gazette.

Pants and Trousers.

Everybody talks well when he talks in the way he likes, the way he can't help, the way he never thinks of. The rest is effort and pretense. The man who says "trousers" because he likes to say it and the man who says "pants" because he likes to say it are both good fellows with whom a frank soul could fraternize, but the man who says "trousers" when he wants to say "pants" is a craven and a truckler equally hateful to honest culture and wholesome ignorance. He belongs in the same sordid category with the man who wears tight shoes and high collars that are a torment to the flesh, who eats olives that he doesn't relish and drinks uncongenial clarets in imitation of his genteel neighbor in the brownstone front.—Atlantic.

Book Evolution.

"Books" have progressed from the days when they were only woodentrods or bits of bark. For the derivation which connects "book" directly with "beech," both having been "boc" in Anglo-Saxon, is the favorite one. "Buchstaben," the German word for letters of the alphabet, means literally "beech staves." Many book words go back to such vegetable origin. The Latin "liber," a book, whence comes our "library," was properly the inner bark or rind of a tree, especially of papyrus. The Greek "biblion," whence "Bible" and "bibliophile," meant much the same thing. A "codex" was a block of wood, and "leaf" is obvious.

A Compromise.

A private soldier was taken to the guardroom for being intoxicated. He became excited. "Sergeant, am I drunk?" he asked of the "noncom" in charge.

"Yes—take off your boots," was the reply.

"But excuse me, sergeant," the delinquent continued, "I am only half drunk."

"Very well, then—take one boot off!" said his superior.—London Scraps.

Peculiarity of Madness.

Who can tell why it is that in mad houses the idea of subordination is very seldom to be found? Bedlam is inhabited only by kings, poets and philosophers.—Medora Messenger.

Human deeds and human lives are never understood until they are finished. You can no more tell in advance how manhood will turn out than how a young child will grow up.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is Both Agreeble and Effective.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has no superior for coughs, colds and croup, and the fact that it is pleasant to take and contains nothing in any way injurious has made it a favorite with mothers. Mr. W. S. Pelham, a merchant of Kirksville, Iowa, says: "For more than twenty years Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has been my leading remedy for all throat troubles. It is especially successful in cases of croup. Children like it and my customers who have used it will not take any other." For sale by W. F. Creighton and Richard Gibson.

FINANCIAL.

An investment you wish to make, rest assured the safest investment you can possibly make is to deposit your money in the Savings Department of this corporation where it will earn 3 per cent. interest compounded twice a year. Your principal will then be always at your command and cannot depreciate in value. You can start an account with this corporation for $1.00 or upwards. If you have other investments in view isn't it advisable to have your MONEY MAKING MONEY while you are deciding this matter. There's many a $1 or $5 bill spent unnecessarily because it is carried in the pocket, when a savings account would have discouraged or prevented the expenditure. A bank account is not only a convenience, but a great encourager of economy, so why not commence right and open an account with us today. We invite you to do so and promise courteous and liberal treatment consistent with sound banking methods.

MEDICAL OPINIONS OF

BUFFALO LITHIA SPRINGS WATER

Experience "Fully Demonstrates the Value of Buffalo Lithia Water as a Solvent of Uric Acid, and a Valuable Therapeutic Agent in the Treatment of Gout."

L. H. Warner, A. M., Ph. G., M. D., Brooklyn, N. Y. In a paper entitled "The Treatment of Gout, Uric Acid Diathesis and super-induced Cystitis in the cases of two idiosyncratic Patients," gives full clinical notes of these interesting cases, and in a lecture before the recent meeting of the Alabama Medical Association showed stereopticon views of the blood and urine of these patients in different stages of improvement. He says: "My former good results from the use of BUFFALO LITHIA WATER in cases of Rheumatism due to Uric Acid intoxication led me to suggest this agent to my patients. The use of nitrogenous foods was restricted and a full half gallon of BUFFALO LITHIA WATER per day was ordered to be taken. I was more than surprised at the amount of Uric Acid sand eliminated with each urination, and three weeks from the beginning of treatment not a trace of the former cystitis existed. BUFFALO LITHIA WATER as the only medication used, we and in four months, with BUFFALO LITHIA WATER find an increase of 5% Hæmoglobin, 200,000 red cells and a normal count of white cells, while the urine appears without any pathological factors. These cases fully demonstrate the value of BUFFALO LITHIA WATER as a solvent of Uric Acid and a therapeutic agent in the treatment of Gout"

"THE MOST RELIABLE SOLVENT IN CHRONIC INFLAMMATION OF THE BLADDER AND RENAL CALCULI."

Louis C. Gorn, M. D., Ph. D., Professor of Diseases of Children and Dermatology in Baltimore University, writes: "Having used BUFFALO LITHIA WATER in my practice in the past eight or nine years, I find it the most pleasant and most reliable solvent in Chronic Inflammation of the Bladder and Renal Calculi; also in gouty and rheumatic conditions. It is a remedy of great potency."

"UNDER A DEBT OF GRATITUDE TO THIS MOST EXCELLENT WATER FOR WONDERFUL RELIEF."

Wm. C. Wile, A. M. D., LL. D., of Danbury, Conn., reports the following (New England Medical Monthly, December 15, 1888): "In a recent outbreak of Nephritic Colic in our own person, the attack, BUFFALO LITHIA WATER, was speedily cut short, the stones quickly passed, and the debris which followed showed a thorough cleaning of the kidneys and bladder of all foreign substances. All of the reflex symptoms and sequelæ were promptly relieved, and we feel under a deep debt of gratitude to this most excellent Water for wonderful relief."

Voluminous medical testimony on request. For sale by the general drug and mineral water trade.
